*A little boy growing up without a dad at home.
A grandchild aching for a hug from grandma.
A neighborhood kid who hangs around your house than his own.
They're all around you, in desperate need of your influence, your love, your Heritage.*

We all encounter children or young people who need our encouragement, whose emotional, social, or spiritual heritage needs strengthening. J. Otis Ledbetter and Randy Scott invite you to use the Heritage Builders concepts to share what God has given you to build the next generation.

This book includes practical ideas, biblical models, and examples from those already extending their heritage that will help you connect with children and youth whose legacies will benefit from your involvement.
