Tony & Darian have been friends and playing together in their band, Sexual Frankenstein, for a few years, and while they really are friends, they've never crossed that line -- no matter how much they may want to -- because of their band and friendship, as well as not thinking the other is interested.

The apparent interest in one of them, from their hot and very glam new singer, brings things to a head as long-buried jealousies push to the fore, leading both Tony and Darian to reevaluate what they already have and what they so desperately want.

This story previously appeared in the Po'boys Anthology, published by Torquere Press.
