Students For a Democratic Society

SDS New Left Notes: Vol. 1, No. 48: December 16, 1966 Students For a Democratic Society

Students for a Democratic Society (SDS) was a student activist movement in the United States that was one of the main representations of the New Left. The organization developed and expanded rapidly in the mid-1960s before dissolving at its last convention in 1969. Their underground newspaper, New Left Notes, was the main source of correspondence to other members. Our book is a high-quality, professionally-scanned reproduction of VOL. 1, NO. 48, which was originally published December 16, 1966. It features articles, pictures, letters and more.
