Snapshot Beauregard Hall

Kate Hill's grandfather is a serial killer. She's got photographs to prove it: snapshots that go back as far as fifty years. Some of them are blurry, but there's no mistaking the tall, gaunt figure burying bodies in a garden she'd been digging in since she was a toddler with a plastic play shovel. Her world changed the moment she found the first snapshot in an alley next to the corpse of an old woman: her grandfather's friend Mary. But Mary turns out to be more than just an innocent victim. And the bloody trail Kate is following leads to something more dangerous than she could ever have imagined ...
