Young Leaders 3.0: Stories, Insights, and Tips for Next-Generation Achievers Jason L. Ma

Welcome to Young Leaders 3.0: Stories, Insights, and Tips for Next-Generation Achievers! You are about to embark on a journey through the minds and transformations of a diverse group of twenty-three 17-to-24-year-old exemplary young leaders. These achievers' reflections, strategies, and personal visions--combined with internationally recognized education and business thought leader, expert, and mentor Jason L. Ma's analysis and nuggets of wisdom--not only help young people get ahead and prepare for the future, but also help parents, educators, and employers understand how to relate to and support the next generation.

These young leaders speak to their peers, offering practical insights and tips on family values, relationships, high school activities, college admissions, the transition into college, college life, internships, job hunting, and career planning. Going beyond GPAs and standardized test scores, the book gives readers an inside look into these leaders' personal successes, failures, and lessons learned along the way.

Author Jason L. Ma wraps up Young Leaders 3.0 with an epilogue that offers his actionable advice and summarizes the overarching themes, success patterns, and lessons learned. This book showcases the progression of soft skills and transformations of the modern multifaceted individual: emotional and social intelligence, critical thinking, and leadership development.
