Not illustrated. 1922 Excerpt: ...staff, and everybody connected with the hospital will make it their individual and combined effort to meet the requirements. They are so simple although in some cases expensive. They can without any difficulty be met. I happen to be connected with five hospitals, all of them teaching institutions, with one exception. When the standardization of hospitals was introduced, we met the requirements. They are City institutions, maintained at the expense of the City of New York. In passing, I might just tell you--those who are unacquainted with hospital organization in New York--that the general hospitals of Manhattan are under a board of trustees. The public hospitals of Brooklyn, Stat en Island, and Blackwells Island are under the commissioner of public welfare. The commissioner of public welfare took the lead, 2 or 3 years ago, and issued a general order applying to each and every hospital of the Department, directing the staffs to comply with the minimum standard. For several years it has been our practice to have not only the regular staff meetings and attendant staff meeting, but the administrative staff meet at least once each week; the superintendents, assistant superintendents, superintendents of nurses, purchasing agents, doctors, and all the people who were recognized as heads of departments are called together each Saturday morning. The general affairs of the institution or of the department are taken up and discussed, so that each person knows the difficulties that we have to contend with, whether it is difficulties with the attending staff, difficulties in the operating room, difficulties in getting money from the City Fathers, changes in the personnel, changes in the pay-roll, and even the question of infection in the wards. The superintendents and ...
