Whenever Kati thought of her life she always started it with "Once Upon a Time," like the story her mother used to tell her before she fell asleep. In the story, the damsel or the heroine always had a prince who would do them, or did wondrous things that other people lived. They were ALWAYS happy endings. Kati longed for her prince. Who was to know that Kati would grow up so differently?

As she walked through the forest, she remembered for the first time in a long time. A hand reached around it, she felt a jolt of electricity flow from the forest and through her body. Blinking and shaking her head she turned and bumped into a man. "Are you going to buy that? Snow White?" he said...

★★★ Guaranteed to keep you fulfilled and dripping with satisfaction! ★★★
