Love Has No Boundaries (China Grove Novel Book 1) I R Plummer

1863

When Adam Morton arrives at the family plantation to investigate the possibility that his siblings have stolen gold from the Union Army his brother shoots him. Awakening in his childhood bedroom Adam is captivated by the barefooted woman tending him until she claims to be someone she can't be --a Morton.

2007

The stranger occupying sassy, independent Amanda Morton's guest bedroom claims to be the disowned brother of her son's namesake--a man who disappeared during the Civil War. Amanda believes Adam is an undercover agent working with a brother who is a Civil War enthusiast--but what if another brother's crazy time-travel experiments finally worked?

The possibility that the family secrets Adam exposes will change history and destroy Amanda's life forces them to examine their past, face their fears, acknowledge their truths and fight for their future.
