Glorious Refrains: A Collection of Classic Hymn Stories and Reflections That Touch the Heart

Thomas Nelson

A beautiful inspirational scripture product that features the incredible art of Thomas Kinkade, classic hymns and their stories, scriptures, and prayers, plus heartfelt words from Thom about his paintings, the hymns, and his inspiration for creating these awesome works of art.

The great memorable hymns from our Christian heritage endure because they touch something in our hearts and spirits . . . they beckon us to a closer relationship with God through soft melodies of invitation, resounding trumpets of praise, and hushed choirs of heavenly and "glorious refrains." These collected hymns, along with their stories, Thom's thoughts, Scriptures and prayers, all inspire the reader to remember the songs of their youth, and those that have become favorites in their lives . . . encouraging them along life's journey. Touching memories of Sundays past, singing the beautiful words of these hymns alongside family and friends, help create a connection from generation to generation.

This beautiful volume will be a perfect gift for anyone with a Christian heritage, and especially moving for those who may have lost a beloved family member. Many of these hymns are often used in memorial services to celebrate the lives of dear ones . . . thereby continuing to establish their place in the hearts of those left behind.
