Billionaire bachelor, Miles Jackson, has had enough of dating women who are only after his money, but because he is being pressured to marry before his grandfather passes, time is running out for him to find a suitable bride.

On the advice of his grandfather, whose mother was a western mail order bride, Miles decides to "order" the perfect bride from a website hosting mail-order brides from the Philippines.

Thousands of miles away, Kathryn Hidalgo walks signs herself up to be a mail-order bride.

She does so out of desperation because she is haunted by her murderous father's past and struggling to keep herself afloat while taking care of her ailing mother.
